The Prayers of the People (Spoken in unison)

P: Trusting in Christ's passover from death to new life, we pray for the church, those in need, and all of God's creation.

C: Alleluia! God, you are resurrection. Bring joy to your church as we spread the good news that Jesus is risen. Lead us to proclaim this message with persistence and confidence. Hear us, O God. Your mercy is great.

Alleluia! God, you are creator. Open our eyes to the first fruits of new life around us: to budding trees, nourishing rains, warm breezes, and freshly tilled soil. Inspire our gratitude and renew our commitment to stewardship of the earth. Hear us, O God. Your mercy is great.

Alleluia! God, you are reconciliation. You show no partiality among peoples and nations, but instead call all people to the way of peace. Bring an end to conflict and division in churches, homes and nations. Renew leaders and advocates for peace with a commitment to the common good. Hear us, O God. Your mercy is great.

Alleluia! God, you are strength. Awaken hope and perseverance in all who need to hear a word of life this day: those who are hungry, anxious, oppressed, despairing, or sick, (especially....). Hear us, O God. Your mercy is great.

Alleluia! God, you are comfort. Draw near to all who grieve. Refresh us with the promise that you will destroy death and that with the saints, we will be made alive forever in Christ. Hear us, O God. Your mercy is great.

P: We commend these and all our prayers to you, O God. Come near to us with your saving help, for the sake of Jesus Christ, our risen Lord. Amen.

The Offering "Accept O Lord, The Gifts We Bring" ELW # 691

Offertory Prayer (Spoken in unison) God of all Ages, you have emptied the tomb and set us free from our burdens. Hope has overshadowed fear. Comfort has replaced neglect. Faith has gained victory over doubt. The bounds of everyday living, often overwhelming our souls and weakening our spirits, are liberated by Jesus Christ. Today, we recommit to offering comfort, hope, and faith as your generous disciples to others who are driven by fear, neglect, and doubt. We offer these gifts in honor of your Easter promise. Alleluia and Amen.

The Easter Invitation to the Lord's Table

P: We are invited to come together around this table as those who belong to the household of Christ, brothers and sisters, who in our baptized lives live out the death and resurrection of Jesus. The family of the reborn and the reconciled, who inhabit a universe of grace. And so we remember..... In the night in which he was betrayed....
